SAINT JOSEPH'S COLLEGE

DEDICATION

Throughout her years at St. Joseph's, S. Mary Maier has been a beacon to us; illuminating our lives with her wide ranging knowledge, deep pride in her work, and respect for her students and colleagues. From her example we have learned to be proud of the special gifts we each have to offer the modern world. She has taught us that no matter how different we are from each other, our inner lights will shine strongly.

S. Mary has taught us these virtues through her constant vitality and enthusiasm in seeking knowledge. It has been said, "Children learn what they live". If this is true, then we have gained many wonderful qualities through our experiences with S. Mary.

For what she has meant to the students of St. Joseph's College and for the example she continues to provide, we dedicate this volume of FOOTPRINTS, in gratitude and love, to Sister Mary Maier.

SJC Professor of the year

"Whatever Dr. Nevins taught, his words reflected all that was part of him, both body and soul."

—D. Marinello

"Through him I developed an interest in Philosophy which has enriched my intellectual life."

—M. Mulvihill

"I prefer to state that Dr. Nevins is, more importantly, a genuine friend, a loyal individual, and a total person."

—R. Radus, Ph.D.

"He is not only a teacher but a friend, a guide and a source of never-ending inspiration as well."

—M. Sabry, '89

"Life is full of possibilities." With these words, Dr. Stanley Nevins demonstrates to his students that there is an infinite number of options available to an individual student. Philosophy is not a dead art; it is alive and thriving in professors such as Dr. Nevins. He inspires his students to think, reflect, consider, question, but most of all, to visualize and examine life's possibilities. He has often pointed out to his students that to question is one of the marks of a mature and educated person. Dr. Nevins presents ideas from such great thinkers as Socrates, James and Sartre; however, it is the student who learns to think critically and to analyze these ideas. Encouraging students to question, Dr. Nevins negates passive acceptance and leads his students to a fuller and richer understanding of themselves. The class of 1988 congratulates Dr. Nevins in receiving the honor of the SJC Professor of the Year.

—M. Goodwin, '88

"As a senior faculty member, Stan is one of the persons who has contributed significantly to SJC by providing strong continuity of ideals and spirit as the unchanging core beneath necessary change."

"Dr. Nevins is deeply concerned with not just getting across a body of facts but motivating students to care about what they are learning and persuading them that the material has real bearing upon their lives."

—L. Rose, M.A.

"In the business and career-oriented world of the 80's, both faculty and students need to be reminded — and inspired — by what Stan has internalized and expressed."

—M. Jennings, Ph.D.

"It is that demand for critical thinking in the every day realities that has had the most influence on my life."

—V. Kirby Brown, '70

"What I remember best about Dr. Nevins was the enthusiasm for learning that he engendered in me and how he freely gave of himself to help me grow."

—Y. Noether-Hite, '71

WE THE PEOPLE . . . of St. Joseph's College take this opportunity to recognize and salute that great document, the Constitution, in its 200th year, and also the great lady, Liberty, who forever stands in N.Y. Harbor to greet multitudes of people.

As we continue on our way, let us keep in mind that the education from our forefathers will enable us to live up to the doctrines set down by the Constitution, and help us protect the liberty of ourselves and others as the Lady has.

SOME THOUGHTS ON ST.

JOE'S . . .

... Exhausting at times, but educationally exhilarating — two wonderful & memorable years of my life . . .

—P.McN.

... A time of friendships, love, knowledge, struggle, discoveries, fear, hope — Time gone by too quickly . . .

—M.M.

... St. Joe's has been 4 years of bar-b-q's, mixers, Alibi, parties, basketball games, Dillon, and sometimes classes . . .

—A.M.R.

... Belief in God, family, and friends. A deep rooting in love. Academically rich in knowledge . . .

—C.A.A.

... Thank you for treating me as a real person and not as a Social Security number . . .

—P.A.M.

... You took me out of the real world for 4 years and made me realize how important reality really is . . .

—K.V.M.

... You can pick your friends . . .

—B.K.

... It's good to be the king! . . .

—K.M.M.

... I wandered far in safety, though I did not know the way! Thanks, Guides. May we all "...see the face of God and LIVE!" . . .

—M.J.D.

... The Damsels in Distress, the Wizard, Felice Navidad, and Friday afternoons to try and remember . . .

—K.A.R.E.N.

... Thank you, St. Joe's, for preparing me for unknown frontiers & achievement beyond my belief . . .

—P.B.W.

... Challenges, Laughter, Tears . . . Great friends to help me through it all & memories to last a lifetime . . .

—E.S.

... It took awhile. But, though I MADE IT HONORARY! . . . dedication and an ambition to discover myself . . . as a person and to . . . St. Joe's has given me an opportunity to grow . . .

—M.G.

... Looking back in time, I see a great many things: Love, Friends, and Knowledge . . .

—G.L.

... St. Joe's has been 4 years of good times, rap sessions, T.F. & strange memories . . .

... Thank you for letting me drive around the block 50 times before finding a spot in faculty parking . . .

—F.M.G.

... 30 years later . . . with the support and friendship of family, students, faculty and St. Joe's . . . I made it! Thanks,

—C.K.S.

... St. Joe's: a place where dreams become a reality . . .

—T.M.M.

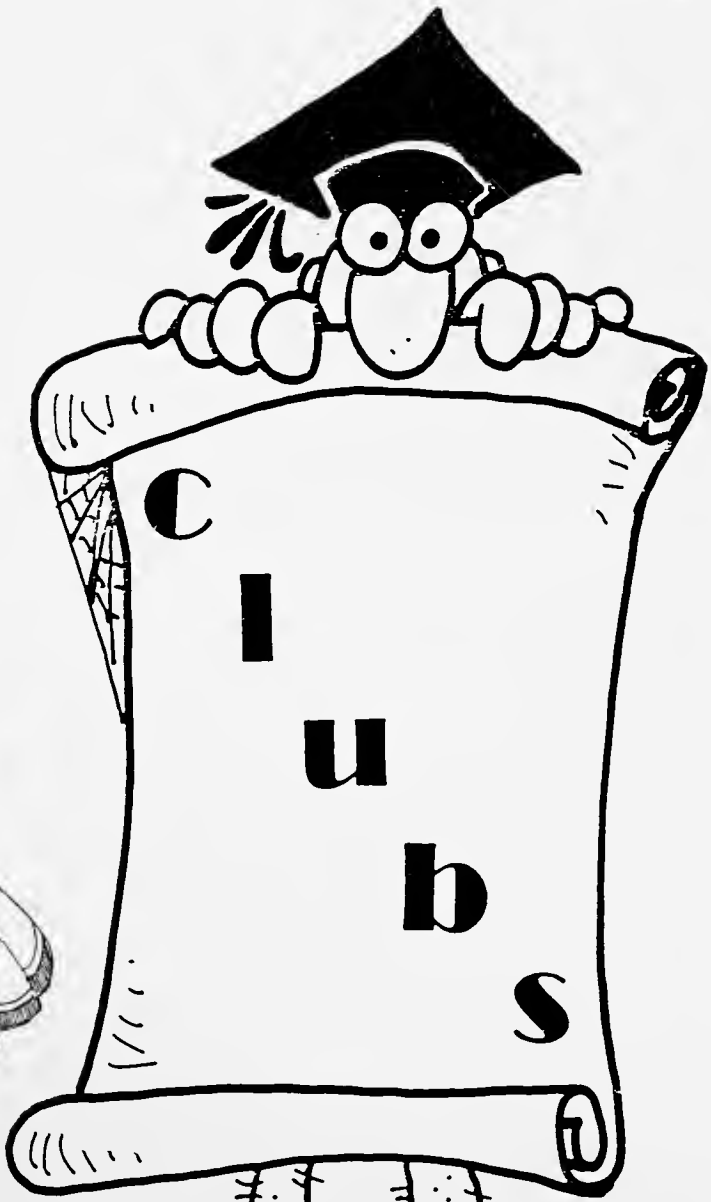

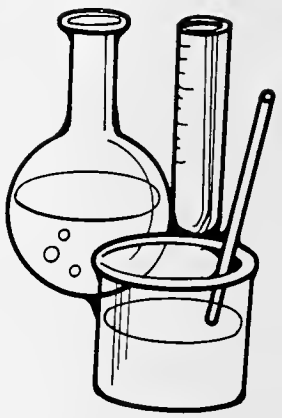

... Classes + mixers + Alibi + clubs + sleeping in the Rec Room + NO parking + friends + fun + good times + bad times = St. Joe's . . .

—J.C.S.

... I had fun here. If you remember me, fine. If not, your loss . . .

*Thank you, St. Joe's, for all the good times and the support during the bad.
Our experiences have been unique and memorable.
We will always cherish the memories
of our lives here,
And hold the values you have given us
dear to our hearts.*
